

Professional Issues Committee/Ethics Response Team

The Professional Issues Committee (PIC) provides educational opportunities for WPA members in the area of ethics and provides support and consultation for members facing ethical dilemmas. The committee strives to make ethical practice a priority in Wisconsin, and provides an opportunity for collaboration and ethical problem-solving. Look for our articles addressing ethical issues in The Wisconsin Psychologist.

Continuing Education Presentations in recent years:

- The Ethics of Using Social Media in Clinical Practice
- Ethical Issues in Small Town and Rural Areas
- Promoting Safety: A Review of Psychologists' Duty to Warn Ethics Response Team (ERT)
- Retiring With Integrity: A Personal Journey
- Hungry Hungry HIPAA
- Mentoring in Professional Psychology: Process, Experiences, and Ethics

PIC members work collaboratively responding to telephone inquiries regarding professional ethics such as confidentiality, records maintenance, duty to warn, dual relationships, etc. This service is available to WPA member psychologists and advanced graduate students by calling 608-251-1450 and leaving a message.
